HAP WAIVER

Homeless Advocacy Project (HAP) provides legal information, some of which is posted on this web site, for the benefit of volunteer attorneys, and as a resource for homeless individuals and families. Because laws vary from state to state and are constantly changing, the materials available on this site are not intended to constitute legal advice, and should not be relied upon by users of this web site. No action should be taken in reliance on any information or documents posted on this web site, except after prior consultation with a lawyer.

By using any information or materials posted on the HAP web site, you are agreeing that under no circumstances will HAP, its staff, officers, board of directors, affiliates, or any lawyer listed or referred to on this web site, be responsible for:

1. Any information contained on or omitted from the website;
2. Any person's reliance on any such information, whether or not the information is correct, current, or complete; and
3. The consequences of any action you or any other person takes or fails to take, whether or not based on information provided by or as a result of the use of this web site. HAP and its affiliates also have no responsibility for
  - a. Any person's satisfaction with any lawyer, whether relating to the lawyer's competence, diligence, or otherwise;
  - b. The results of any advice given by or representation from any lawyer; or
  - c. The failure or refusal of any attorney to respond to you or consult with you.

You are welcome to view this web site for your own personal, non-commercial purposes, for free. Copying or distributing any information contained on this web site is prohibited, except with the prior written consent of HAP.

Use of HAP's website or any response from anyone to any query does not constitute HAP accepting such person as a client. A client relationship may only be formed by a specific written agreement under which the client and HAP agree to form such a relationship.
