

Getting Photo ID from PennDOT

Where should you go?

- ✓ Location: The PennDOT office in Center City Philadelphia is located at 801 Arch Street. You can also go to any other PennDOT office that issues ID.
- ✓ Hours: Monday – Saturday, 8:30 a.m. – 4:15 p.m.

What should you bring? The requirements for obtaining PA Photo ID depend on whether you have ever had a PA photo ID before:

- ✓ If you previously had a PA ID card, you can go in person to a PennDOT office with your Birth Certificate and a check or money order for $30.50, and the new ID will be issued the same day. You do not need to bring other proof of ID, but
- ✓ If you have NEVER had a PA ID card, you will need to bring:
 - Proof of Identity: Birth Certificate (or Certificate of U.S. Citizenship, Certificate of Naturalization, or Passport)
 - Social Security Card
 - TWO Proofs of Residency: for example, a lease, mortgage, utility bill, or tax statement. If you don't have any of these documents, bring a letter from your shelter, mail from Social Security or Welfare, or other official mail that goes to that address.

If you are experiencing homelessness and your ID has expired, you are eligible for a FREE renewal!

- ✓ Before going to the PennDot office, call Customer Service at 717-412-5300 and ask for your ID number.
- ✓ When you go to PennDot, let them know you are experiencing homelessness and apply for a new ID.

How long does it take? If you have the documents you need, you will get your photo ID the same day.

How much does it cost? Photo ID costs $30.50, and must be paid by check, money order, debit/credit card only – cash is not accepted.
